

Please complete and email with a set of floorplans and interior and exterior photos to: homebuilding@futurenet.com. The deadline for entries is 31 MAY 2021. Your project must be complete by the time judging takes place in summer 2021, and should have been completed within the past three years. By entering, you agree to potential publicity in The Daily Telegraph and Homebuilding & Renovating magazine.

NAME OF ENTRANT

ADDRESS

EMAIL TEL. NO:

NUMBER IN FAMILY AND AGES

Size of property (internal area) in m²:

Please provide the area of any garages separately. Please also state the number of bedrooms and the number of storeys:

.....

Which best describes your property? (please tick):

- New build
- Conversion (eg barn or church)
- Remodel and/or renovation of an existing house
- Extension of an existing house

Which category/ies are you entering? (please tick):

- Best self-build
- Best extension
- Best renovation
- Best conversion
- Best green home
- Best interior
- Best value home
- Best contemporary home
- Spirit of self-build
- Home of the future
- Best custom build scheme

Name of the owner and address of property (if different from above):

.....
.....

Date when work commenced:

Date occupied/completed:

What was the cost of the building plot/house?

(please provide an estimate if already owned)

Rules of entry: 1. The competition is free of charge to anyone aged over 18 (including architectural practices) except for employees of The Telegraph plc and Future Publishing and their families. 2. The closing date for entries is 14 May 2021. 3. Responsibility cannot be accepted for entries lost, damaged or delayed in transit. 4. Photocopied entry forms will be accepted. 5. No cash alternatives will be offered in lieu of prizes that may be offered. 6. We cannot guarantee the return of entries, including drawings and photographs. 7. Details of entrants and their projects (not including specific location details) may be published in The Daily Telegraph and Homebuilding & Renovating in print and online at the discretion of the editors and may be used in publicity material (including publicity material used by the sponsors). 8. The judges' decision will be final and unchallengeable. No correspondence will be entered into. 9. The judges reserve the right not to award winners in any category if entries do not reach the required standard. 10. Unsuccessful entrants may not necessarily be contacted or have their entry returned. 11. In addition to these rules, standard Telegraph rules apply and are available on request from: The Daily Telegraph, 111 Buckingham Palace Road, London SW1W 0DT. 12. You are advised to keep a photocopy of this form for your own information.

Please tick if appropriate. I wish to receive offers from The Telegraph plc, Future Publishing or companies approved by The Telegraph plc or Future Publishing.

I agree to be bound by the rules of entry. Signed Date

What was the cost of the project/the build?

.....

What is the current/estimated value of the property?

.....

Please provide the name of the designer or architect:

(if applicable)

.....

What makes your project special?

(you may provide additional information to support your entry)

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

If your project is shortlisted we will contact you and may request further information. The initial round of judging is based entirely on the details on this form, and importantly, the images of the interior and exterior of your house that you provide with your entry.

These images do not need to be of professional quality but in order to portray your home in the best way these should be comprehensive and, if possible, taken on a bright day with a well-lit interior.